Dear Mr. Wisberg:

When you appeared on the Alan Burke show a few weeks ago, I was deeply impressed by the statements you made regarding the Warren Report.

The composure you maintained, while being harassed by those show lawyers, certainly was to my edification, perhaps because I am so quick tempered.

On July 29 I contacted Doubleday Book Shops in New York and ordered your book "Whitewash". Since the book arrived today, I fail to make any comment, but

I'm sure it will be interesting.

It would be most rewarding, for myself and others who were interested in what you had to say, if you could appear once again on the Alton Burke show. Perhaps the next time it will be without the company of those three lawyers who talked so much yet had so little to say.

Sincere good wishes that your book will be read and enjoyed by millions who are interested in truth.

Since I obtained your home town from the back cover of your book, I feel this address might be insufficient and would appreciate knowing if you have received this letter.

If it's not asking too much,
would you also let me know if you will appear on the Alan Burke show a second time — and if so, when.

The kindness, patience and time you take to reply will be deeply appreciated.

Respectfully,

Derry Di Palo
